TD Cindermen Trek To Bend

The Dalles track team enters its final scheduled meet this weekend before the subdistrict meet May 11 at Bend and the district meet in The Dalles May 18.

Coach Al Miller is taking 17 trackmen to Bend bright and early Saturday for the annual Bend Bulletin Invitational.

A bundle of schools are participating in this metric meet, some of which are Redmond, Parkrose, The Dalles, Crater, Madras, Prineville, Lakeview, Burns and hosting Bend.

Miller says elimination preliminaries will run in the early hours with the final heats clocked in the afternoon. The Dalles cindermen will leave the high school at about 8 a.m.

Miller will be entering Loren Craber and Gary Ordway in the high and low hurdles, Larry Glenn and Gary Morioka in the 100-meter dash, Lynn Harmon and John Merriss in the 1,500-meter run, Jerry Miller and Joe Thompson in the 400-meter dash, Doug Miller and Tom Jones in the 200-meter dash, Merriss and Larry Austin in the 800-meter run; Glenn, Doug Miller, Jones and Ordway in the 800-meter relay; Marnie Moore and Bill Mullins in the shot put, John Altemendorf and Steve Lawrence in the pole vault, Bill Todd in the javelin, Moore in the discus, Craber and Jerry Miller in the broad jump and Craber and Phil Wag-enblast in the high jump.
