Thinclads To Enter Wa-Hi Relays Tonite

The Dalles track squad was scheduled to leave for Walla Walla early this afternoon for

Papooses Top Jayvees, 16-5

Jim Jackson hit two for four, including a homer to lead the high school Papooses to a 16-5 win over the Wahtonka Jayvees Thursday. He also had three runs batted in.

Stu Fadness had four for five and Don Leabo two for three. Hitting doubles were Chris Jones, Steve Miller, Pat Gibson, Doug Hattenhauer and Fadness.

Buster Sexton homered with the Wa-Hi Relays tonight at 7:15.

Coach Al Miller and local thinclads will have the chance to look at Pendleton, La Grande, Hermiston and Mac-Hi, along with Walla Walla, Kennewick and Pasco.

Practically everything will be in relays. Only individual events will be the discus throw and the javelin and high jump.

John Altendorf, who last week set a DHS pole vault record, will not make this trip, but ventures to Eugene Saturday for the Hayward Relays.

Some 90 high schools are scheduled to enter this annual two-day event. Class A-2 and B schools are competing today; the A-1 and metro schools Saturday.
