Bend Wins Dual Meet Here, 86-45

Bend's track team, showing strength all the way through the ranks, won its 16th straight dual track meet in four years Friday, this time at The Dalles, 86-45.

Hosting Coach Al Miller said it looks like Bend and Pendleton will fight it out for District 7-Al laurels and hopes The Dalles will be close to the leaders, possibly third.

In Friday's meet, the hosts got only three firsts. Loren Craber won the high jump, clearing 5-7. Harry Skandera, running competitively on his own track for the first time in two years, won the two-mile run in 10:37.3. And John Altendorf won the high bar competition, pole vaulting 12-0. He missed three attempts at 13-4. He holds the school mark of 12-0, set a week ago.

Skandera, injuring his foot shortly after the three-quarter meet at Jefferson a year ago, red-shirted it last season, hurt the foot earlier this season and has been using thick rubber-soled track shoes the last three weeks.

The Dalles hosts a four-way meet next Friday, May 1. Wy-east, Jesuit and Redmond are here. Events start at 3:15 p. m.
