Thinclads Go South After Cold Opener

Oregon State's track team headed south where the weather was bound to be warmer after suffering through a cold, rainy, windy meet here Saturday.

The Beavers take on Fresno State Wednesday and meet Sam Bell's California Bears on Saturday.

Coach Berny Wagner could point to several outstanding individual performances in Saturday's six-way meet with Portland U., Willamette, Lewis and Clark, Portland State and the OSU Rooks.

Phil Lowry, junior from Lebanon, tossed the javelin 227-2 for the day's best showing. Lahcen Samsam hit 55-9 in the shot put and sprinter Butch Lumby ran 10.0 and 22.7 despite the weather conditions.

But Wagner could also see a promise of the future, too. Rook performers bettered varsity marks in the high jump and discus and Greg Marks from Corvallis gave Steve Pancoast of the varsity a run for his money, both clocked in 49.4.
