Pilots Down Bearcat Thinclads

PORTLAND — Portland University, using its greater depth, scored an 81-64 victory over Willamette University in a dual track meet in the rain here Saturday.

The Pilots won nine of the 17 events, but had a good many seconds.

Willamette did score a sweep in the javelin, with Ladd Zastoupil tossing the spear 190 feet, six inches for the win. on Jensen won the shot for the Bearcats with a throw of 50-8 $\frac{1}{4}$, which is a new Willamette record. The old mark was 50-2 $\frac{1}{2}$.

Ray Colson won a double for the 'Cats, taking both hurdles events. He won the highs in a good early season time of 15 flat and then came back to win the intermediates in 56.8.

Next outing for Willamette is the annual WU Relays on Saturday.
